LIVES DIE BY THOUSANDS
AFTER HORRIBLE SUFFERING.

THE COMMUNITIES ARE RE-PORTED WIPED OUT AND SOL-DIERS REFUSE TO GO TO SCENE OF RAVAGE.

SHANGHAI, China, Dec. 27—The provinces of Kiangsu and Pechili in the northeast part of China are being depopulated by famine and the bubonic plague, according to reports brought here.

It is stated that hundreds of natives are dying every day and that a number of foreign missionaries are dead from the epidemic.

Most horrible suffering is reported among the people in those provinces and it is said that whole communities have already been wiped out.

The government soldiers have resisted and absolutely refused to go into the ravaged districts to take supplies to the hungry and aid in the work of relieving the sufferings of those afflicted with the plague.

Unusual interest is manifested in the sessions of the American Association for Labor Legislation, where resolutions will be adopted urging action by congress and the various state legislatures on their legislative program, which includes the prohibition of poisonous phosphorus in the manufacture of matches; investigation of industrial industries; and the enforcement of labor laws.

CRIMINAL PROSECUTIONS MAY STRIKE SUCH FINANCIERS AS PIERPONT MORGAN AND GEO.
WESTINGHOUSE.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27—It became known today that the department of justice will, during the first week in January, begin a struggle against what is termed the greatest monopoly in the world—the so-called billion dollar electrical trust.

It is reported that Attorney-General Wickersham wants criminal prosecutions instituted against the heads of the corporations making up the electrical trust and that he will push these prosecutions with all his power.

Included among the financiers who will fall under the government ban in this way are Pierpont Morgan and George Westinghouse.

The president will confer with Attorney-General Wickersham regarding the matter and a plan of prosecution will be mapped out before it is started.

years respectively in the state penitentiary.

It is believed by the authorities that the stiff sentences given the leaders will have a good effect on other members of the Black Hand.

tinued for Mrs. Bennett and Herman Parker, of Georgia, who was a guest aboard the yacht.

Stuart Bennett was a magazine writer of note and was 35 years of age. The other three people who were rescued from the yacht left the

LYNCHING OF NEGRO THREATENED.

STATE TROOPS HELD READY TO ASSIST THE SHERIFF.

CRITICAL SITUATION PREVAILS

AT WESTON, W. VA., WHERE NEGRO IS GUARDED IN THE JAIL.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Dec. 27—
A critical situation prevails at Weston, W. Va., where William Furby, a negro, is being held in jail, which is being strongly guarded to prevent a lynching.

The negro is charged with assaulting Flora Anglin, age 21, and it is said that a mob is being formed to storm the jail to secure the black man.

The governor has been notified of the situation and is holding the state troops in readiness to be rushed to the aid of the sheriff if necessary.

AUTOMOBILES COLLIDE; NO PERSONS ARE HURT.

In a collision between a big Stoddard-Dayton automobile and the E.
H. Hotchkiss car on South Beach street Tuesday forenoon the front of the Stoddard car was badly damaged, although the engine was not injured. The Stoddard car crashed into the rear end of the Hotchkiss car, which was standing in front of the Merchant's Bank building. The driver of the Stoddard car said his brakes refused to work. Nobody was hurt, and the Hotchkiss car was not damaged.

Careless People Carry Cash.

It costs $1,000 sometimes for a skeptical person to learn that a bank is a safer depository for money than a hand bag. That is what it cost a lady recently to learn this bitter lesson. An enterprising burglar who was aware of her foolish distrust of banks watched his opportunity and the money was gone. The sayings of almost a lifetime were lost merely because of the foolish fear that the bank would break.
Think of the millions and millions of dollars in banks every day and the loss by the breaking of a bank is not one dollar in a hundred millions.
Don't try to be your own banker.
You may regret it.

NEW YORK, Dec. 27—The North Bank of New York with a capital of cated at various points in the city, trainmen were killed in a wreck caused by two fast freight trains on the Baltimore and Ohio road colliding near here this morning. It is said that orders for meeting were disobeyed and the two trains crashed into each other with terrific force.

STOCK MARKET WEAK WHEN TRADING STARTS.

NEW YORK, Dec. 27—A reaction set in during the first hour of trading after the stock market opened today. The market was weak and prices began to decline. Steel common and general electric stocks were the heaviest losers.

BATTLE RESUMED AT DAWN; GOVERNMENT LOSSES HEAVY.

FRESH FEDERAL TROOPS AR-RIVE TO REINFORCE DIAZ
ARMY, WHICH WAS ALMOST DEFEATED.

CHIMUAHUA, Mexico, Dec. 27—
The desperate battle which has been going on between the Revolutionists and the Regulars near Malpaz, was resumed at daylight today, when fresh government troops arrived on the scene to reinforce the Diaz army, which was all but defeated.

During the conflict, which raged for 24 hours and ceased temporarily at nightfall, the Rebels had all the better of the engagement.

The losses on the government side were very heavy, but with the arrival of reinforcements the Federalists hope to succeed in driving the Revolutionists out of their stronghold and administer a crushing defeat, which would have a disheartening effect on the Rebels.

Last Revolutionary Survivor.
The last survivor of the Revolutionary war was John Gray, who died in Noble county, O., aged 104 years, on March 23, 1868. He came to the Buckeye State early in its existence. For some years before he died he drew an annual pension of $500 from the government. General John A. Bingham having got a special act through congress for this. Gray's father was killed at the battle of Stillwater and he took his place in the army, being only sixteen years old then. He served through the remainder of the war. His military record is on file at the office of the state commissioner of soldiers' claims.—Columbus Dispatch.

The Bull of Perillus.
Perillus of Athens is said to have invented for Phalaris, tyrant of Agrigento, 570 B. C., a brazen bull which opened on the side to admit victims who were to be roasted by the fire which was built underneath. The dying groans of the sufferers resembled closely the roaring of a mad bull. Phalaris greatly admired the invention and by way of test roasted the inventor first. Later the populace rose in rebellion and burned Phalaris.

Ruth St. Denis Digs Deep Into Egyptian Lore to Produce Dances

Ruth St. Denis, who last season was seen in a repertory of dances the locale of which was laid in India, will this season draw upon ancient Egypt for the source of inspiration for her new terpsichorean features. Miss St. Denis in speaking of these dances said: "I have gone back into the dim and misty past, at a time when ancient Egypt, mother of all nations, was in the zenith of her power. Her religion was the pivot on which the sociological phase of life at that time turned. These dances illustrate the motif of the doctrines of a government in which the highest powers were delegated to the priests. They also illustrate the psychology of this religion. As the country depended solely upon its agricultural resources, the Nile was the most potent factor in making the soil fruitful and productive of huge harvests. The overflow of the waters, which is an annual phenomenon of this river, was turned to account, and instead of being destructive and productive of great damage the leaping of its banks and covering over the soil adjacent to its course were turned to account. The priests, realizing the value of the rise of the waters and its attendant good results, set aside certain periods of the year for invocations, prayers and general celebrations to the gods that they might in their merces send through the land this swirl of waters in its accustomed wont so that the crops might reap the benefit of its lapping tongues and that the granaries might be filled with the fruits of the soil and plenty reign supreme in the land."

The Eternal Feminine.
A little girl has been attending a school that is new to her. She was asked if she had met another little girl, who was a pupil in the same school.

"Oh, yes," she replied, "she spoke to me the first day I was there."
"And what did she say?"
"Why, she said, 'Does my petticoat show?'"—Exchange.

Adam's Polite Act.
Mrs. Benham—Men aren't as chivalrous as they used to be. Benham—Oh, I don't know; I never heard of Adam giving up his seat in a street car to a woman. Mrs. Benham—Perhaps not, but he gave up his rib to one.—New York Press.

No Credit.
Actyn Barnes, tragedian, solemnly strutted into the bar of the night stand hotel. "Put a pint of wine on the ice, my friend," he said to the man behind the counter.

"Not if I'm in my right mind I won't!" chuckled the other, who happened to be the proprietor. "Cash down is the rule in this here tavern, b'gosh!"—Kansas City Star.

The Sea Horse.
The hippocampus, or sea horse, is by no means an extinct creature, nor is it a creation of the old "mythologies" or "fairy tales." Hippocampus, though very small, is a living reality and not a fiction, a distinct order of the class of fishes.

DEPUTY SHERIFF GORE RETURNED WITH PRISONER.

NEGRO NOW IN CITY JAIL—HAS BEEN IDENTIFIED BY COLORED MAN AS BEING HERE AT TIME OF ROBBERIES.

Deputy Sheriff A. P. Gore returned Saturday night from Jacksonville with Edward McDonald, the negro, thought to be implicated in the burglaries which occurred in this city and vicinity last summer.

McDonald, who is lodged in the city jail, has been identified by one colored man of this city as having been here at the time the robberies were being perpetrated and Mr. Gore is now engaged in seeking more evidence against him.

CHRISTMAS DINNER PARTY AT SOUTH BEACH STREET HOME.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. H. White entertained a party of friends at Christmas dinner at noon yesterday at their winter home on South Beach street.

The entrance hall and parlor of the residence were tastefully decorated with holly, magnolia and other greenery, supplemented in the latter room with a festoon of Christmas bells and miniature Christmas tree.

The handsome dining room was also prettily trimmed with flowers and foliage and the long table, arranged for twenty, was a beautiful sight, with its sparkling cut glass and silver and attractive decorations.

In the center of the table appeared the representation of a brick chimney surmounted by Santa Claus, over whose shoulders were thrown a pair of popcorn reins attached to a fine little turkey which was strutting up the table. The decorations were of poinsettia and magnolia, the glossy leaves of the latter being festooned over the table, reaching from end to end of the long room and looped above the center piece.

On a corner table was displayed a pretty little Christmas tree about which were grouped presents for the child guests of the occasion, while a fancy paper head dress hung upon the chairs allotted to the younger members of the festive party.

Miss May Mabbette, who has been visiting her mother and other members of the family at The Hamilton on South Palmetto avenue for the past few days, returned to St. Augustine yesterday afternoon.

LIVE WIRE KILLS ONE MAN; KNOCKS FIVE UNCONSCIOUS.

MAN IN MASSACHUSETTS IS ELECTROCUTED AND FRIENDS ARE HURT IN TRYING TO RESCUE HIM.

LYNN, Mass., Dec. 27—William McGrady seized a live wire, which had become wound around his neck, and in doing so formed a short circuit, which electrocuted him in plain sight of a number of people.

Five friends jumped to his rescue and when they touched him received shocks which rendered all unconscious.

COUNTRY IS UNPREPARED FOR SERIOUS HOSTILITIES.

WAR DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS ANXIOUS CONCERNING ACTIVITY OF JAPANESE IN THE PHILIPPINES.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27—"The United States is unprepared for real hostilities with any first class power," was the statement made by Major General Wood before the house committee on military affairs. This was made public today in his testimony given at a closed hearing. He would urge the building up of a reserve army of 300,000.

The war department officials are clearly anxious concerning the reported activity of the Japanese in the Philippines.

READER OF THE DAILY NEWS MAKES A GOOD SUGGESTION.

It may not be improper, nor wholly impolite, to suggest to the railroad authorities, at this time of the year, considering what Daytona does for the railroad, that a sort of New Year's present of a new and up to date station would be highly appreciated, in place of the primitive, inconvenient and inadequate affair now used for that purpose and which has been out grown by the heavy traffic of the place.

The improvement suggested is well within the rights of a railroad point of Daytona's present and growing importance. At least the lighting of the depot and the toilet arrangements should have the attention they demand.

JAPANESE SPY CAUGHT IN LUZON.

ISLAND BEING FORTIFIED AGAINST ATTACK BY SEA.

UNITED STATES MILITARY AUTHORITIES HOLDING JAP SPY, WHO WAS ARRESTED AT CORREGIDO TODAY.

LONDON, Dec. 27—A dispatch received here from Manila says a Japanese spy was arrested by the United States military authorities at Corregido today and is being held by the military authorities. The dispatch also says the Island of Luzon is being strongly fortified by the Americans to be in condition to defend the land against attack by sea.

RAN FORD TOURING CAR INTO TELEGRAPH POLE.

DRIVER'S LIP WAS BADLY CUT AND CAR SOMEWHAT DAMAGED—NERVE SPOILED, SOLD CAR AS IT STOOD.

Saturday night as George Brown, a winter visitor in the city, was hurrying for a doctor in a Ford touring car he ran into a telegraph pole on Ridgewood avenue and sustained a cut lip and some slight damage to the machine, a fender being bent and the glass of the windshield broken.

Mr. Brown was thrown against the frame of the windshield, giving him a bad cut on the lip. He took the car to the Orange avenue garage for repairs, but changed his mind and sold it on the spot to L. M. Williams, an employee of the garage.

PLEASED MANY CHILDREN WITH CHRISTMAS PRESENTS.

H. Eugene Johnson, proprietor of the bicycle shop at the west end of the Central Bridge, delighted the hearts of 125 children Saturday afternoon by his distribution of Christmas presents.

Mr. Johnson laid in a supply of sand buckets, plug-pong rackets, Jack-in-the-boxes, dolls, rubber balls, pencils and rulers and Saturday afternoon presented each child, who applied at the store between 1:00 and 3:00 o'clock, p. m., with one of the articles.

Mr. Johnson had been advertising in the Daily News that presents would be given at the time stated and so many children applied that he was kept busy until after 5 o'clock, among the last to come being a flock of fourteen, all the grandchildren of one lady.

A number of envelopes containing cards calling for certain articles of the collection were placed in a box and each child drew an envelope and was then presented with whatever the card called for.

Mr. Johnson was greatly pleased with the outcome of his efforts and talks of increasing the distribution another year.

Sherman Nusbaum came down from Jacksonville Saturday night on a short business and pleasure trip.

Ireland's Claddagh Clan.
The Claddagh, in the extreme west of Ireland, is the one section of the country where the Gaelic life is the same today as it was before the Normans invaded Britain. Up to about forty years ago the clan had its own king. A Dominican monastery has been in continuous existence there since the fifth century.

London Climate.
An English wit made an epigram to describe the climate of London: "In a fine day, looking up a chimney; in a foul day, looking down one."

Mexican Chicle.
The gum of the Mexican chicle tree is valuable as the basis for most chewing gums for the reason that it is absolutely tasteless and therefore does not affect the flavor of other ingredients mixed with it.

QUESTION OF RACES UNDECIDED.MORE ENTRIES PROMISED BY THE MANUFACTURERS.*PROMOTER MOROSS GOES TO*JACKSONVILLE AND WILL RETURN HERE THURSDAY FOR FINAL DECISION.

The question of whether there will be an automobile race meet on Daytona Beach next March is still undecided, but the matter will probably be definitely settled Thursday. Promoter E. A. Moross left Sunday for Jacksonville and will return to this city Thursday. If the necessary amount of money has been subscribed by that time the biggest beach racing meet ever held will take place here the last week in March. If the necessary amount of money has not been subscribed the biggest beach racing meet will be held at Jacksonville.

The promises made by Mr. Moross that he would have at least 20 entries, made up of the fastest cars in the world and handled by the best known racing drivers, will be fulfilled. In order to satisfy themselves that these cars would be entered if such a meet is arranged local enthusiasts have communicated with the manufacturers of these cars and have received assurances that the manufacturers are already making arrangements to have these cars here for the meet.

Several days ago the Daily News published a list of the cars that had been promised for entries and since that time word has been received that there will be entries from the manufacturers of the Warren-Detroit, the Herreshoff Motor company will have cars here for entry and will do all possible to support the meet. Three of the fastest cars have been promised by the Benz people, there will be three Nationals in the races, two or more Buicks are promised and at least one Lozier will be here.

This gives assurances that the meet on Daytona beach next spring will bring together the largest number of racing cars ever gathered for a beach meet.

BICYCLE WRECKEN BY RAPID AUTO BUS.

Saturday about noon, B. W. Boyd, while driving his auto bus up Beach street, ran upon a bicycle rider totally wrecking the wheel, but not injuring the man.

The accident occurred in front of Commodore C. G. Burgoyne's residence and it seems to have been entirely the fault of the wheelman, who turned from the left side of the street squarely in front of the bus. Although the man himself admitted he was in the wrong Mr. Boyd gave him $20 toward a new bicycle, as he claimed to be in poor circumstances.

CHRISTMAS TREE MONDAY NIGHT AT THE MORGAN.GUESTS OF THE MORGAN COMBINED AND HAD CHRISTMAS TREE AND A JOLLY TIME AT THAT HOUSE.

The guests of The Morgan, corner of Volusia and Palmetto avenues, each contributed a stated small sum toward a Christmas tree at that house Monday night and all thoroughly enjoyed the good time that resulted.

Mrs. M. L. Stanley and Miss Maud N. Kaiser were the committee of preparations and were highly praised for the splendid showing made with the comparatively small amount of money at their disposal.

Attractive little souvenirs were provided for all the guests and in addition something of a comical nature was given to the gentlemen of the house. Sixty bags of candy, each tastefully put up and containing a sprig of holly, were also distributed among those present, while just prior to drawing the curtains from about the tree, plates of stick candy were passed around and old and young indulged in this childish form of sweets.

When the curtains were drawn back from the tree, which stood in a corner of the general parlor of The Morgan, a beautiful and sparkling scene was presented to the beholders.

Mrs. M. L. Stanley gracefully distributed the gifts from the tree and in the case of comic presents for the gentlemen, accompanied each one with some witty or ridiculous remark, suited to each special individual, causing much mirth and laughter at the expense of the recipient.

It proved a most enjoyable affair and Mrs. Stanley and Miss Kaiser deserve great credit for their clever management and their readiness to accept the formidable amount of work entailed in purchasing the articles and preparing the tree.

DEEP SEA MONSTERS HERE; NOW PLACED ON EXHIBITION.

LOCAL PEOPLE NOW HAVE OPPORTUNITY TO SEE DENIZENS WHICH MAKE HOME AT BOTTOM OF SEA.

Capt. Moore's collection of deep-sea monsters, which have been exhibited over a large part of the country, arousing much interest among the people who have seen them, have arrived in Daytona and are now on exhibition in the Atwood building, just south of the Hankins drug store.

The exhibition is in charge of L. H. Schermerhorn and A. B. Farmer and is now open to the public. The exhibition will be continuous during the rest of the winter season.

MADE TRIP TO JACKSONVILLE LAST WEEK IN AUTOMOBILE.

W. D. B. Barnes and Geo. H. Foote, Jr., made a trip to Jacksonville last week in the latter's car.

They drove to St. Augustine Tuesday and the following day continued to Jacksonville. On the return they left Jacksonville Thursday and spent two days and nights in St. Augustine. On the way home from the latter city Saturday they met the Regal Flagger about 30 miles north of here on its way to Jacksonville.

The young men say they had a very good trip and enjoyed it greatly, but the roads they found in what they considered very bad condition.

Seabreeze and Daytona Beach are essentially summer resorts and are not intended for permanent residence. Those who desire to enjoy the stimulating excitement of heat and sun, and their hotels and boarding houses are now receiving seasonal patronage from the most distinguished class of tourists.

The ocean itself, with its marvelous beach, hard as emeralds and smooth as a floor, is the greatest attraction, although salt, air and sky seem to have entered into a combination to enhance its every charm. The beach is the famous automobile race course where every world's straight-away record has been made, and all these records it continues to hold without rivalry.

The beach has a width of 300 to 500 feet and can be used from two hours after until two hours before high tide, thus giving an average of seven or eight hours for automobilizing some part of each day.

Seabreeze and Daytona Beach each have a permanent population of approximately 1500. Sanitary ordinances are strictly enforced, streets and sidewalks are well kept, and new streets are being opened as fast as the increasing population demands. Besides hotels and boarding houses there is ample cottage accommodation for all winter visitors in both towns.

All the attractiveness of Seabreeze applies to Daytona Beach, the two towns being so similarly situated. The development of Daytona Beach has been fully as phenomenal as its sister on the north, and each year there is a substantial growth. The great sand dunes have been leveled and handsome homes have been built for both winter and all-year-round occupancy.

FITZGERALD & OATES
LAWYERS
Daytona, Fla.

Of course you know as well as I do the importance of maintaining confidential relations with your daughter.

But I want to speak to you about something else.

You should impress it upon your daughter that the man who asks her to keep anything from her mother is to be regarded with grave suspicion.

Make her realize that the fact itself of proposing to her to keep her family in ignorance of his intentions is prima facie evidence that such a man's purposes are not honorable to her.

Explain to her that such a proposal is an insult.

Many an innocent girl runs a tremendous risk because the romance of secrecy appeals to her. She feels complimented by being asked to share in a covert love affair. What possible harm can come of it?

But once caught in an entanglement of this sort there is no telling where the matter may stop. And clandestine meetings spell ruin for your girl.

Girls who work for a living are in especial danger, oftentimes—it seems sad to say it—from their employers. If your daughter is employed by some man who makes a suggestion of secret relations she ought to know that it is better to lose her job than her character. Jobs may be duplicated, reputation never.

Your girl ought to know, for instance, that when a married man crosses the line of common courtesy or polite requirement she must beware of him.

It is not necessary to teach your child that all men are ravening wolves or human hyenas. That would be untrue, but—

She must know, if she is to be safe from harm, that any man who gives any sort of reason for not wishing her parents to know about his alleged regard is dangerous.

If he really cares for your daughter he will not object to publicity; if he really loves her he will want the world to know it.

These are plain words. And the advice may be considered trite. But I have seen the dark waters close over many a girl in her teens because her mother failed of her duty.

That's right enough, my lad, but as the snuffbox is not large enough for both of us you can keep it for yourself."

Juvenile Wisdom.
From some examination papers in a Massachusetts—we repeat, Massachusetts—town:

"Capillarity is when milk rises up around the edge of the bottle and shows good measure."

"The settlers gave a Thanksgiving dinner to the Indians for their kindness and to the Lord for fair weather. They kept up their festivities for three days, eating all the time. A party of sixty Indian warriors came, rolling their warhoops down the hill."

"Henry VIII. by his own efforts increased the population of England 40,000."

"Esau wrote fables and sold them for potash."

"The Lupercal was the wolf who suckled Romeo and Juliet at Rome."

"Lincoln has a high forehead, which is a sign of many brains."—Everybody's.

Nelson as a Courtier.
Nelson was the hero of England even in his own time, but not apparently of the court. Samuel Rogers recounts a conversation with him which appears in the life of the poet by R. Ellis Roberts. "I heard him once during dinner," says Rogers, "utter many bitter complaints (which Lady Hamilton vainly attempted to check) of the way he had been treated at court that forenoon—the queen had not condescended to take the slightest notice of him. In truth, Nelson was hated at court; they were jealous of him." But then it must be remembered that Rogers was renowned as a particularly ill-natured gossip.

The Hidden Passion.
It is related of a certain man who went to sleep last night with a passion in his heart, and in the morning he awoke with a passion on his face.

which language he was speaking. He said "Je meurs" (I die). Then he opened his eyes before passing out and added: "Man kann auch in der Hölle sterben" (One can also die in the infernal form of the dead.) His last flicker of consciousness in the word more than in the last death.

Disraeli's Humor.
I was introduced by party to a quest to Mrs. Wyndham Lewis, a little woman, a flirt and a wit. Indeed, gifted with a wit, she should think unequalled and I can convey no idea. She said she liked "silent, melancholy men" answered that I had no doubt of it. Letter of Benjamin Disraeli to Mrs. Wyndham.

An Optimist.
"Pa, what is an optimist?"
"An optimist, my son, is a man with 11 cents in his pocket who doesn't grow sarcastic when he reads that the country's per capita wealth is $37." Birmingham Age-Herald.

Worth Trying.
"I washed Willie's pants t'adder day, and dey shrunk so dat de po' chile kin hardly walk in 'um. Won'er how I gwan fix um?"
"Try washin' de chile. Maybe he shrink too."

Medicine in Norway.

News Snapshots Of the Week

The death of Chief Justice Fuller and two other members of the United States supreme court left three vacancies in that body, which have been filled by President Taft as follows: Chief justice, Edward Douglass White; associate justices, Willis Van Devanter and Joseph Rucker Lamar. George W. Perkins withdraws from his partnership with the firm of J. Pierpont Morgan & Co. and enters the Equitable Life Assurance society in an advisory capacity. Ten million dollars has been set aside as a permanent fund for the advancement of universal peace by Andrew Carnegie, making his total gifts up to date $187,000,000. The expected arrival of a stranger in the household of King George V. and Queen Mary may delay the coronation of the English royal couple.

A Famous Miser.

John Elwes, who lived—we can hardly say flourished—in the eighteenth century, was a famous miser. When he possessed of a million of money, walked the streets of London philanthropic people would sometimes thrust a penny into his hand, so beggarly and poverty stricken was his appearance. He would eat food that was in the last stage of putrefaction sooner than throw it away and would ride for miles out of his way sooner than pay a twopenny toll on the turnpike. By an accident in the street he received an injury to both his legs, and a doctor was called in. Elwes protested that the expense was quite unnecessary and that he was not much hurt. So he made an arrangement with the doctor. The doctor was to take one leg and treat as he liked. Elwes would take the other and do nothing to it. And he would bet the doctor the amount of his bill that the unintended leg got well first. He used to boast afterward that he beat the doctor by a fortnight.

The Art of Boxing.

Pugilism, the practice of boxing or fighting with the fists, was a manly art and exercise highly esteemed among the ancients. In those days the hands of the pugilist were armed with the cestus, leather thongs loaded with lead or iron. This form of athletic sport was at first only permitted to freemen among the Greeks, but gradually it was taken up as a profession and lost much of its prestige.

As an illustration of its early use we find in Virgil's fifth Aeneid the record of a match between Dares, "with nimble feet and confident in youth," and Entellus, the veteran champion, "strong and weighty limbed," when the combatants—

Their arms uplift in air, their heads withdrawn
Back from the blows, and, mingling hand
With hand, provoke the conflict.

Pugilism has been a typical English sport from the days of King Alfred.—London Standard.

Convention of Stags.

Within the Imperial preserves where the kaiser and his guests secured 500 deer in one day is the Schorfhaide, which each year toward the month of November becomes the meeting place of thousands of stags. This annual assemblage on the Schorfhaide has taken place every autumn for centuries past. Mention thereof has been found in documents more than a thousand years old. All sorts of theories have been put forward to account for it. Some natives say that the animals meet to decide matters affecting the leadership of their various clans. It seems hard to account otherwise for the attraction which brings stags and their mates from Galicia, on the Russian border; from the Liechtenstein game preserves south of Vienna and from the still larger estates in Hungary belonging to the Archduke Frederick, all the way to the Schorfhaide.—London Chronicle.

The Dialect Was There.

Ex-Governor Bob Taylor of Tennessee was once entertaining a northern guest who was rather skeptical about the prevailing dialect in stories of southern negroes. He thought it overdrawn. To disprove the contention, Mr. Taylor laughingly made a wager with his guest that the northerner would be unable to interpret the language of the first negro they met. Accordingly they set out and presently came upon a black man basking indolently in the sun. Telling his friend to pay close heed, Mr. Taylor stepped up to the negro and demanded suddenly:

"Weh he?"

The negro blinked his eyes stolidly and then answered in a guttural voice:

"Wah who?"—Everybody's.

Found the Saint's Day.

One Russian peasant sued another to recover the sum of 50 rubles, the debt or having faithfully promised to return the money on St. Henry's day. But, having failed to do so for a long time, the lender discovered that the Russian Orthodox church includes no such saint as St. Henry, and the judge before whom the case was tried was much puzzled as to what verdict he should give. Happily the idea occurred to him that, saint or no saint, all saints' day included even the most doubtful, so he gave judgment that the 50 rubles should be returned next all saints' day.

HAMBURG MAY BE MADE WORLD'S GREATEST PORT.

Deepened Channels and New Docks to Cost $50,000,000.

The authorities of the city of Hamburg are determined to make their port the greatest in the world. To that end $50,000,000 is to be spent during the next four years in deepening the channels of the river Elbe and constructing new docks and railroad connecting branches. Several of the existing docks which now accommodate only river craft are to be deepened for seagoing ships, and quay space will be cleared for the erection of miles of new warehouses.

The main channel of the Elbe below Hamburg is to be deepened to thirty-three feet and to be made a minimum width of 1,233 feet. The connection of the new basins requires a large number of drawbridges and tunneling under the river bed.

The works at the Kohlbrand branch of the Elbe are in Prussian territory, but with the consent of the Prussian government they will be included in the Hamburg free harbor district. The existing customs line will be pushed back to the west, being marked by a string of barges.

Germany is showing equal energy in extending her inland waterways. Rapid progress is being made with the canal between Berlin and the river Oder, which will make it possible for 600-ton vessels to reach the capital from the Baltic sea. This canal is in part merely an improvement of the Finow canal built by Frederick the Great to connect the systems of the Elbe and the Oder.

The improved canal is to have four locks, each with a difference of level of thirty feet, instead of the original seventeen. Each lock takes two 600-ton boats at the same time and are thus among the biggest in Europe. A ship elevator which will do the work more quickly will afterward be built if traffic justifies the expense.

Not far from Berlin, before the new canal joins the old one, the sandy soil is being found so permeable that the whole canal bed had to be lined with concrete.

ENGLISH FARMERS TO TOUR.

Will See America and Canada For Up to Date Tips.

Educational tours in the United States and Canada are being organized by the English central and associated chambers of agriculture for the benefit of farmers who are not above learning from Americans how English farming methods can be improved.

The itinerary is to include visits to the leading agricultural colleges and government experimental farms in Canada and the eastern states. The study of different styles of farming will be investigated on typical farms—wheat in Manitoba and Saskatchewan, fruit at Niagara and in British Columbia and dairy farming in Ontario, Michigan and New York. Lectures by experts on such topics as the feeding of cattle and improvements in strains of cereals will be arranged.

It is proposed that these agricultural tours shall be of two lengths, the longer to cover six months, April to September; the shorter three months, April to June or July to September. The longer tour will enable the farmer to investigate not only seedling, but harvesting, and provided he works on a farm or farms under normal conditions, as it is proposed he shall do for about three months of the time, it will cost him not more than the short tour would.

CHRISTMAS ENTERTAINMENT AND FLAG PRESENTATION.

EXERCISES AT THE PUBLIC SCHOOL AND FLAG PRESENTATION BY D. A. R. LARGELY ATTENDED FRIDAY AFTERNOON.

The Christmas exercises at the public school, followed by the presentation of a handsome United States flag by Abigail Bartholomew Chapter, D. A. R., Friday afternoon, was very largely attended by a representative and appreciative audience.

The following program of the school exercises was carried out with great credit to the children taking part and to the teachers who trained them:

Piano Solo.
 A Christmas Carol—Twelve Boys.
 Recitation, "Who Santa Claus Wuz"—Ben Shaw.
 Crowning of Florence Nightingale by Muses and Graces.
 Song, Frühlingsnacht—Myrtle Zuber.
 A Rehearsal of the Christmas Entertainment at Skeeter Corner.
 Song, Christmas Time—School.
 All the numbers of the program were excellent and were heartily applauded. "The Crowning of Florence Nightingale, by Muses and Graces," was beautifully carried out and very interesting, but probably the most enjoyable feature of the exercises was the comic sketch, "A Rehearsal of the Christmas Entertainment at Skeeter Corner."

The exercises were by the children of the higher grades of the school, pupils of the Misses Morrill, Wilkinson, Franklin, Rogers, Ingram and Salter.

Following the exercises the school children, teachers and spectators adjourned to the school grounds in front of the building where the impressive and interesting ceremony of presenting the flag was carried out.

The school children and spectators formed a circle about the flag staff, while the members of the D. A. R. were grouped in a semi-circle about Rev. Dr. B. F. Marsh and Prof. J. L. Wright upon the steps of the school building.

The invocation by Dr. Marsh was followed by a brief address by Miss Kathryn E. Thorp, regent of Abigail Bartholomew Chapter.

Captain C. A. Young being prevented by illness from being present, the flag was raised in a very graceful and pleasing manner by Miss Ella Willaume, the daughter of a daughter of the American Revolution, Mrs. Charles E. Gardiner.

After the raising of the flag Prof. Wright gave a short address and poem and the ceremony closed with a prayer by Dr. Marsh and the singing of the Star Spangled Banner by the school children.

The handsome bunting flag is 12x19 feet in measurement and flies from a staff over 70 feet in height.

The show at the Crystal Theater Monday night was a dandy and the one to be given tomorrow night will be just as good. We feel sure Arthur Hart will enjoy the motion pictures, so if he will call at the Daily News office we will give him two tickets to the show.
